Figure 10.1.1.4. International Amateur Athletic Federation (IAAF)

Database: International Organizations

Link type: NGO relations Network nodes: 115

UIA database: http://db.uia.org/scripts/sweb.dll/uiaf?DD=OR&DR=B1153

stablish friendly and loyal cooperation between all Members for the benefit of amateur athletics throughout the world; strive to ensure that no racial, religious, political or other kind of discrimination be allowed in athletics, and take all practicable measures to stop such discrimination; strive to secure that there shall be no hindrance to the participation of any country or individual in international athletic competitions on racial, religious or political grounds, and ensure that there be no such hindrance in international meetings over which IAAF has control; compile rules and regulations governing international competitions for men and women in amateur athletics; ensure that all contests between Members, including Area and Group Championships or Games, shall be held under the laws and rules of IAAF; affiliate national governing bodies who shall then be the only national governing body for athletics which may be recognized by the respective National Olympic Committee, where such a Committee exists; decide any dispute that may arise between Members, if called upon to do so; cooperate with the Organizing Committees of Olympic Games in carrying through the organisation of athletic competitions, and as delegated by IOC, supervise and control all the technical arrangements; frame regulations for the establishment of World and Olympic records, and such other amateur athletic records as Congress agrees may be recognized.