One may be humble out of pride. (Montaigne)
The first test of a truly great man is his humility. (John Ruskin)
There is a price which is too great to pay for peace, and that price can be put in one word. One cannot pay the price of self-respect. (Woodrow Wilson)
Self respect will keep a man from being abject when he is in the power of enemies, and will enable him to feel that he may be in the right when the world is against him. (Bertrand Russell)
To know a man, observe how he wins his object, rather than how he loses it; for when we fail our pride supports us, when we succeed, it betrays us. (Charles Caleb Colton)
Pride, perceiving humility honourable, often borrows her cloak. (Thomas Fuller)
It takes a kind of shabby arrogance to survive in our time, and a fairly romantic nature to want to. (Edgar Z Friedenberg)
