Change in number of secretariats of international NGOs of type G: 1991 and 2001

This table gives the population and number of international NGOs of type G for a given country for the years 1991 and 2001. These are the principal secretariats (headquarters, main office) of the organisation. Secondary (including regional) secretariats are not included. The table also indicates the expansion or contraction in the number of NGO secretariats by country over the decade, and the number of secretariats per 1 million of population for both years.

Source of population data: Population Division of the Department of Economic and Social Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat.

For information on types of organization, see Appendix 10.
