Figure 10.3.2. Strategies related to travel Providing travel opportunities Database: Global Strategies and Solutions Risking trave Link type: narrower strategies Conducting varied travel experiences Network nodes: 154 UIA database: http://db.uia.org/scripts/sweb.dll/uiaf?DD=ST&CL=2 ... search for "travel*" Ensuring essential travel services .Promoting air travel Networking airline communication professionals Risking traffic accidents Assisting travelling Going walkabout Applying mathematics in for transport planning Travelling by motor vehicle Travelling convenient regular routes . Organizing dependable travel system Attracting potential travel dollar Decreasing travel to workplace Organizing alternative travel means Promoting inexpensive practical travel Travelling Removing government subsidies Organizing regularly scheduled travel ,Accommodating gypsies Travelling illegally Exploiting indigenous populations Mobilizing financial resources for health Developing international youth tourism Relocating Mobilizing domestic financial resources for poverty alleviation Exploiting for travel _Creating touristic identity Mobilizing Mobilizing Mobilizing Mobilizing Mobilizing Mobilizing Mobilizing Developing tourism Shifting from materials-intensive growth in developed countries Shifting from energy- to information-intensive societies Advancing ecotourism Removing international trade barriers Building all-weather roads Furnishing produ Increasing travel opportunities Developing tourist exchanges for youth Assuring all-weather vehicle travel "Discouraging airline travel Using travellers cheque Mobilizing ne essary human resources Mobilizing shelter production by commercial sector Moving Setting safety standards for sea travel Increasing general public mobility Shifting menting global travel schemes Protecting against road hazards Abolishing unethical practices concerning movement of people Mobilizina resources Decreasing population mobility Covering liability of railways Coordinating tourism legislation Developing frequent travel plans Restricting travel Protecting/against hazardous travel Restricting freedom of movement between countries ,Protecting against travel health hazards Providing global travel experience Guaranteeing transport insurance provisions Facilitating easy outside contact Granting travellers cheque Setting safety standards for air travel Harmonizing transport of dangerous goods Covering liability of shipowners Alerting travellers of danger Applying animal sanitary regulations in international travel Exposing criminal involvement in travel abuses Reporting malpractice of travel agents Facilitating international travel Freeing up image of trave Avoiding travelling hazards "Improving foot travel network Developing street safety schemes Reducing travel risks Establishing pedestrian malls Reducing aviation risks Facilitating resident pedestrian travel Preventing traffic accidents Increasing access to foreign trave Increasing international travel Protecting pedestrians Researching child pedestrian accidents Enabling pedestrians safety

The world is a book, and those who do not travel read only a page. (Augustine)

Never before have so many people travelled so much and so far and at such speed as at present. Humanity is possessed by a hugh restlessness. What is causing this incessant movement? It is desire in its myriad forms. Some are journeying to clinch a deal, make money, extend power; others seek a change of scenery or a hotter sun; a desire for adventure motivates other; many have been driven from their homes by famine or poverty or violence and are seeking a better life. All are searching for something they do not possess or have not experienced.