The United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) has formal relations with 1539 international (or continental) nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) which support its aims and activities. The names of these bodies appear around the circumference (and may be viewed on the accompanying CD). The 1539 do not include the many other national bodies that have been recognized by ECOSOC in some way. The image above shows the formal relations between the 1539 bodies (whether working relations, membership or any other form). These links are presented as curves in an effort to emphasize the nature of this particular NGO world. Many of these bodies are represented through the Conference of Non-Governmental Organizations in Consultative Relationship with the United Nations (CONGO).
