Figure 10.1.10.
International Association of Universities (IAU)

Database: International Organizations
Link type: NGO relations
Network nodes: 472
UIA database: http://db.uia.org/scripts/sweb.dll/uiaf?DD=OR&DR=B1363

Promote development of international cooperation in the field of higher education and research and intensification of exchanges among member institutions; secure provision of technical services to members and to academic organizations and creation of instruments of information and documentation concerning higher education throughout the world; study problems of common interest to universities of different countries; through these activities, build up a strong international university community able to promote mutual understanding among different peoples and cultures and thus serve the cause of peace.