

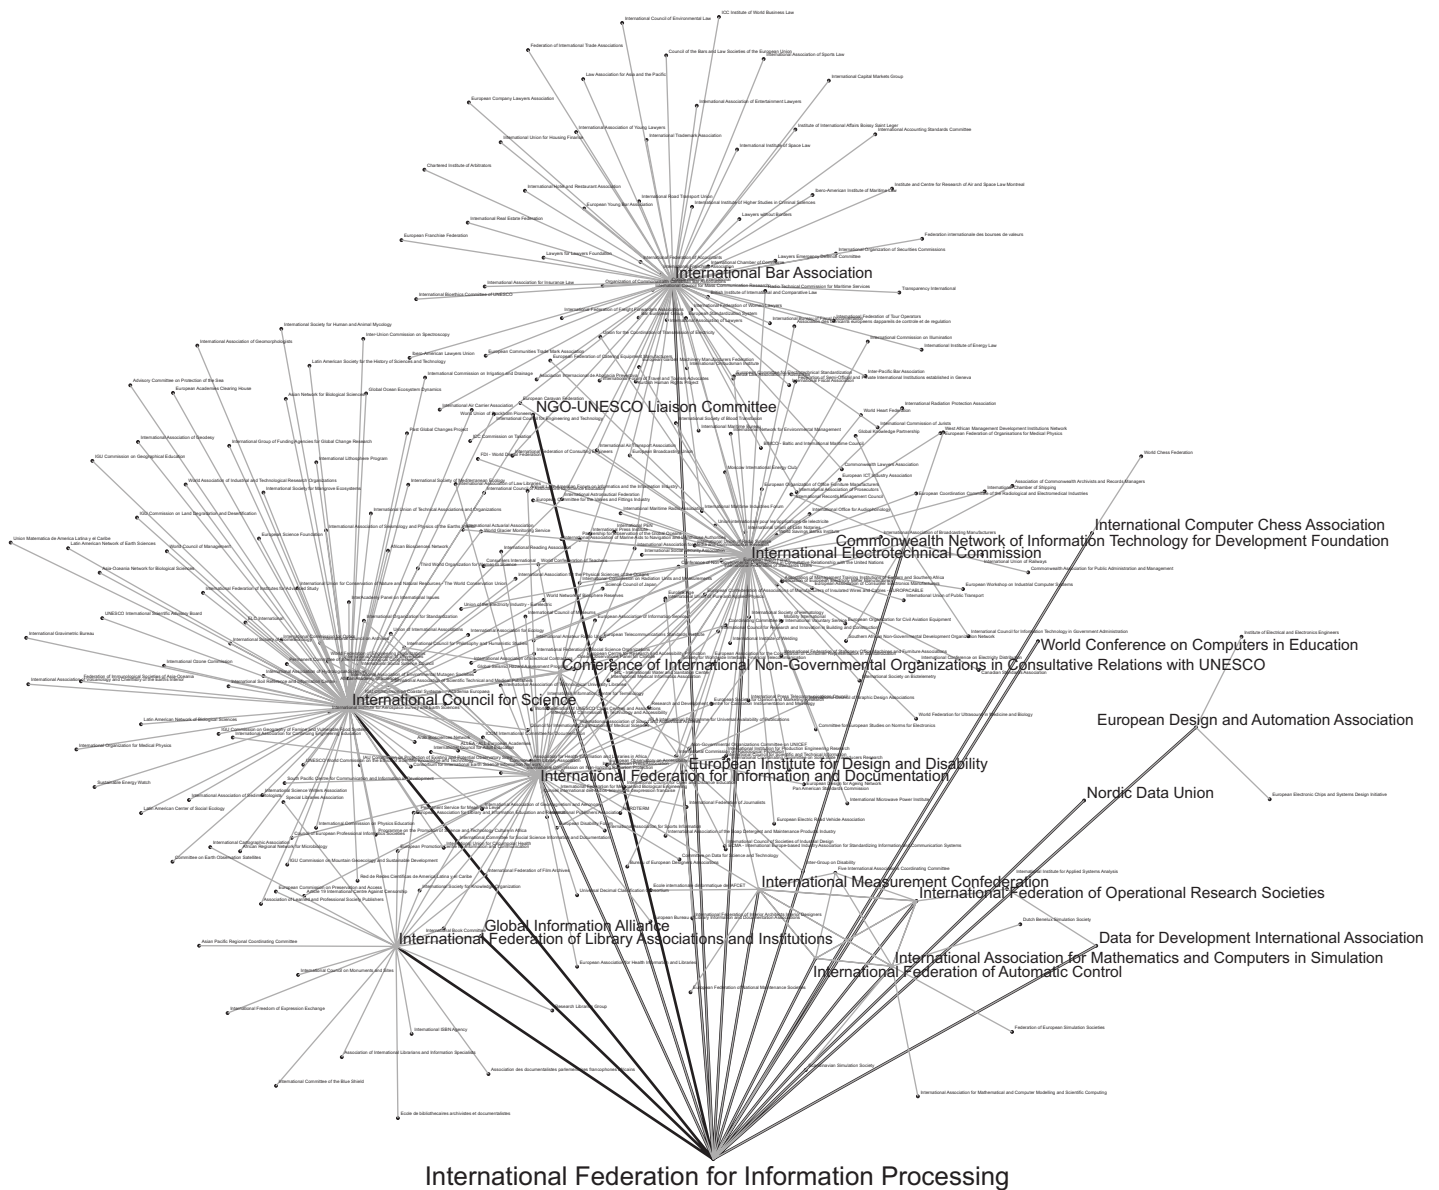

Figure 10.1.11.
International Federation for Information Processing (IFIP)

Database: International Organizations

Link type: NGO relations

Network nodes: 336

UIA database: <http://db.uia.org/scripts/sweb.dll/uiaf?DD=OR&DR=C1828>

Encourage and assist development, exploitation and application of information technology (IT); stimulate, encourage and participate in its research, development and application; foster international cooperation in the field; provide a meeting place for national societies to discuss and plan action on issues of international significance; pay special attention to needs of developing countries and assist them in obtaining optimum benefit from information technology; promote professionalism, incorporating high standards of ethics and conduct among practitioners; provide a forum for assessing social consequences of IT applications; campaign for safe development and use of IT and protection from abuse through its improper application; foster and facilitate cooperation between academics, industry and governmental bodies; represent the interests of users; provide a vehicle for work on international aspects of IT development and application including preparatory work for generating international standards; contribute to formulation of education and training needs of practitioners, users and the public at large.