Figure 10.2.2.
Injustice

Justice ! Custodian of the world ! But since the world errs, justice must be custodian of the world's errors. (Ugo Betti).

Rigid justice is the greatest injustice. (Thomas Fuller).

Even the laws of justice themselves cannot subsist without mixture of injustice. (Montaigne).

The firm basis of government is justice, not pity. (Woodrow Wilson).

A man who deals in fairness with his own, he can make manifest justice in the state. (Sophocles).

Absolute freedom mocks at justice. Absolute justice denies freedom. (Albert Camus).
